

The Brookline Police Department runs a voluntary bicycle registration program. You can register your bike by calling the BPD's Community Service Division at 617-730-2603.

Between January and October 2009, we had 67 bicycles reported stolen in Brookline. Registered bikes have a greater chance of being returned to owners when lost or stolen. Protect your property today!